

QUALIFICATION STATEMENT

"Service Powered by Results!"

United AMS offers Consulting, Receivership, Bankruptcy and Asset Management Services Nationwide. Our team of professionals strives to provide value-added services by constantly pursuing more effective and efficient solutions. In order to attain this goal, the company utilizes its vast experience in business management, case administration, dispute resolution, negotiation, turn-around, finance and information technology, which allows us to tailor services and strategies to fit a specific assets/business' needs. United AMS' team is efficient, cost effective, and goal and schedule oriented.

Dotan Y. Melech is United AMS' Co-founder and President. Mr. Melech is an entrepreneur, a former Federal Bankruptcy Trustee, and a Court Appointed Receiver by multiple District Courts. His experience, professionalism and trust have allowed him to be appointed in these key roles. As a Federal Trustee of the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts, Mr. Melech had the responsibility of overseeing and managing bankruptcy estates on behalf of the bankruptcy court. Melech has more than 25 years experience in senior management and in the fields of finance, real estate, manufacturing, and construction. Throughout his career, Melech has been involved in major projects nationally and internationally. Melech's achievements and experience in both the public and private sectors offer a uniquely diversified approach.

Mr. Melech is known for creating and using unique, innovative and cost effective methods to turn struggling businesses around, and for building successful startups from the ground-up. Melech holds a B.S. in Civil Engineering from UNLV and an MBA from University of Pittsburgh (PITT).

Our team of professionals has administered thousands of bankruptcy and receivership cases. United AMS is a fully integrated business advisory, fiduciary and asset management service company.
